Re: Identification Number: C00359034
 Year-end Report (7/1/01-12/31/01)

Dear Ms. Pittman:

This letter supplements our April 9, 2002 correspondence to the Commission.

In the course of answering the Commission's inquiry relating to reattributions, reallocations and refunds we discovered that we had not properly entered pending reattributions and reallocations in the year end report as memo items. Although we noted in the contributor file pending reallocations, reattributions and redesignations requests, these notations did not appear in the year end report. We have since learned that we had not utilized the proper Aristotle software entry function.

We wanted to bring this to the Commission's attention because, although we believed those notations appeared in the FEC report, they in fact, were not reflected as we believed. We are now correctly using this function and all future reports (including the first quarter 2002 report already filed) will be entered so as to reflect any reattributions, reallocations and redesignations or refunds, if necessary.

If we can furnish additional information or be of additional assistance, please do not hesitate to advise.

Very truly yours,

 Terry J. Brady
 Treasurer
